This multisensory class will have kids moving, singing and performing. We'll play games like Alpha-ball Toss and Sight Word Baseball, along with recite silly poetry and perform goofy fun Reader's Theater. Everything will be reinforced by playfully learning lowercase cursive. Parents will receive a cursive family guide and suggestions for fun ways to continue the learning. No matter the level of you little reader or writer, this class will increase understanding and help students fall in love with sounds, syllables and spelling rules. New content is covered each week.
