Instructor: Saralyn Voltz

Learn a new language where you say nothing at all! Come try your 'hand' at a new language and learn American Sign Language! This beautiful language is not only fun, but useful for everyone. During the week we'll explore how to communicate without our voices through some basic signs. We'll practice the use of our new language through crafts, games, and activities! Together we'll create a performance to share at the end of the week.
