W7: July 17-July 21

Entering Grades:

12:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.

Instructor: Colorado Ballet

Colorado Ballet's creative movement dance camp is designed for students to study a variety of dance concepts such as size, balance, rhythm, levels, shapes, and energy. In addition to dance, students will also work on developing important life skills such as problem solving, spatial awareness, social and emotional learning, and strengthening the body and brain all through the art of dance. Dancers will work together to create their own dances to show off at the end of the week!
